

STEVE DUKE “BLUE”, Week 1 Director

Steve has been involved with Cascade Camp Cedarbrook for the past 30 years with most of those years spent as the Boys’ camp director. He was key in starting the boys’ camping program when his own son, Casey, came of camping age.

Steve came to know Christ as his Savior when he was in college and has since continued to follow his Lord. Steve serves Jesus in his church as well as through the camp ministry.

Steve’s camp name, “Blue”, is short for Blue Heron. Steve strives to build relationships and mentors his staff in their ministry and working with youth. He advocates for the Cedarbrook Core Values and standing firm on biblical principles in the Cedarbrook ministry.

JAYNE BLACKBURN “ROBIN”, Executive Director

Jayne has been involved with Cascade Camp Cedarbrook for 30 years. She attended camp as a camper for 1 year and then returned as staff when she graduated from high school and hasn’t looked back. She has held many roles within camp and now serves the ministry as the Executive Director and Registrar.

Jayne came to know Jesus as her Savior when she was a young girl attending a church conference. Serving the Lord through the ministry of Cedarbrook is a key passion in her life.

Jayne took her camp name “Robin” as a tribute from her counselor when she attended CCC as a camper. Jayne strives to mentor her directors and staff as they work with children of all ages and from all walks of life. She believes that providing campers the opportunity to come to know Jesus as their own Savior can be life-changing for them.
